EJERCICIOS

A NEW LIFESTYLE

The readers of a Paris newspaper could see the following advertisement in their newspaper last April:

“Do you want to buy an island and start a community? If you are interested, telephone 0243 572828 for more details.”

This advertisement was thought up by Jeff and Linda Bernard from Paris. They have received over ninety replies since its appearance last April. From those, they have chosen eight other couples who also want to change their lifestyle. Jeff, Linda and the other people want to leave Paris because of the great increase in its population, its environmental pollution and because of its problems of criminality.

Jeff and Linda are the editors of their own women’s magazine and they also write reports on fashion for it. They have earned a lot of money because the magazine has been very successful. All the other applicants have very good jobs except for a thirty-year-old man who is unemployed at the moment. Jeff, Linda and the rest of the people have €140.000. But this money is not enough to buy the island they want. They need at least ten other couples to get more because their intention is to build separate houses for all the families and a big communal farm where they can grow vegetables and fruit and take care of some cows.

Although they have been looking for an island in the Pacific Ocean for several weeks, they have not found their perfect island there. Now they are searching throughout the Caribbean, where there are thousands of uninhabited islands. Like so many other people, they just want to live an old-fashioned existence in their own private paradise.
